

Throw Away That Ham

Menachem Weinstein–Vocal; Arranged, produced & mixed by Motti Cohen at Midnight Studios, London; Gershon Veroba–Piano; Rabbi Shalom Levine–Kazoo; Motti Cohen–Keyboards & Production

All the animals that I eat must chew their cud and have split feet
I'm telling you throw away that ham
Guard your tongue from Lashon Harah
Stay at home and study Torah Kosher meat just can't be beat so throw away that ham!

Separate your milk and meat utensils in your kitchen keep each one in its' own place
And the two don't you go mixin'
Don't let yourself become a little shnook my friend
When you get home... throw away that ham!

Take it Shalom. (Kazoo solo)

-----
(Menachem's rap)

We got red labels, blue labels, green ones too
And I don't .....scotch, but I guess you already knew Look real hard so you don't misconstrue
As a Jew you review everything that you chew.
So the next time you start salivating for stew
Be sure to get the lard right out of the room.
It isn't hard, but if you ain't got a clue
Just keep it kosher, whatever you do
-----

Don't go eating bread on Pesach, you know it is leaven
And if you keep all the Mitzvos,
You're gonna' end up right in heaven
You should pray three times a day with a minyan if you can and when you get home... throw away that ham.
