Now all you young Yeshiva boys kindly gather around
I gotta' a little something I must say
You know the way this world is going things are looking pretty rough
And it's getting tougher to be Jewish every day

Now pretty soon the time will come when you will want a wife
Well its risky you can either win or loose
So listen to my song son its got some good advice
Pick a frum girl she's the one to choose

Frum wives are better mothers
Better then all others
Frum wives are better ladies any day
Frum wives are cooking Kosher
And that's something you should know sir
Frum wives will stick beside you all the way

Now I couldn't help but over hear a young guy about eighteen
He was taking to his friends about this girl
She had him hoodwinked blind and dazzled by all her pretty looks
And by him she was the best thing in this world

So I asked him quite politely if he'd mind if I budded in
It was something in his words that wasn't right
And sure enough he told me what I didn't want to hear
He knew nothing about this young girls Yiddishkeit

Frum wives are better mothers
Better then all others
Frum wives are better ladies any day
Frum wives are cooking Kosher
And that's something you should know sir
Frum wives will stick beside you all the way

Now all you young religious girls this part here is just for you
The future of our people is in your hands
Now there's nothing in this world that can top a Torah wife
And that's the way to get yourself a Torah man

Frum wives are better mothers
Better then all others
Frum wives are better ladies any day
Frum wives are cooking Kosher
And that's something you should know sir
Frum wives will stick beside you all the way

Frum wives are better mothers
Better then all others
Frum wives are better ladies any day
Frum wives are cooking Kosher
And that's something you should know sir
Frum wives will stick beside you all the way
