Gal Gershovsky-Drums

It seems like everybody's got a frown
I don't know why they got their smiles upside down Take your frown and throw it right away
And just sing this song with me and everything will be okay

G-d is my strength and my song
Even if skies are cloudy and everything's going wrong
I know that the sunshine's coming on

And when it gets you down and feeling blue and you get to feeling helpless like you do Here's something that will make it go away with this very simple song you'll feel okay.

G-d is my strength and my song
Even if skies are cloudy and everything's going wrong
I know that the sunshine's coming on
